Radow College Faculty Research Panel
Women, Medicine, & Empowerment

Empowering Women and Girls Through Mental Health Research
Dr. Ebony Glover, Associate Professor of Neuroscience

Tightened in a Difficult Union: From Illness to Empowerment in Amelia Rosselli
Dr. Federica Santini, Coordinator of GWST and Professor of Italian and Interdisciplinary Studies

The “Birth Control Question:” Women’s Suffrage and the Fight for Birth Control 1915-1921
Dr. Lauren Maclvor Thompson, Assistant Professor of History and Interdisciplinary Studies

Join us on March 22nd in SO 5074 (or virtually) from 12:30pm-2:00pm to learn how Radow College faculty are contributing to their fields!
Women and the Impact of COVID-19

The COVID-19 Pandemic: Data Issues and Implications for Intimate Partner Violence Victims
Dr. Catherine "Katie" Kaukinen, Dean of RCHSS and Professor of Sociology

COVID-19 Preventative Behaviors and the role of Women in Successful Health Mitigation Efforts
Dr. Anisah Bagasra, Assistant Professor of Psychology

COVID-19 Presents More Communication Challenges for Women Counselors at Law and Court Reporters
Dr. Robin Mathis, Assistant Director of OPCP and Assistant Professor of Communication

Join us on March 31st in SO 5074 (or virtually) from 12:30pm-2:00pm to learn how Radow College faculty are contributing to their fields!