Electronic Communications: The University provides all KSU students with an “official” email account with the address “students.kennesaw.edu.” As a result of federal laws protecting educational information and other data, this is the sole email account you should use to communicate with your instructor or other University officials.

Course Description: This course is a survey of world history from early modern times to the present. The course examines themes, events, trends, institutions, and ideas with a focus on global connections and interactions.

Learning Objectives: First, students will build knowledge sufficient to identify major events, ideas, institutions, and individuals of modern world history, and to respond effectively to broad historical questions about why change occurred over time. Second, students will develop their critical thinking skills through extensive engagement with primary sources. In this course, we will learn to think of history not as a collection of facts to be memorized but as a process—an activity—that involves examining a variety of sources, considering their contexts and biases, and interpreting them in order to form the best possible conclusions about why things happened as they did.

HIST 1112 satisfies one of Kennesaw State University’s general education program requirements. It addresses the SOCIAL SCIENCES general education learning outcome(s). The learning outcome states: Students analyze the complexity of human behavior and how social, historical, economic, political, or spatial relationships develop, persist, or change. For more information about KSU’s General Education program requirements and associated learning outcomes, please visit the course catalog.

Required Reading: Edward H. Judge and John W. Langdon, Connections: World History, vol. 2, 3rd edition (Pearson, 2016). ISBN: 9780133841398 / 0133841391

Other readings are available as links on the syllabus or on D2L.

Attendance Policy: Attendance is crucial for success in this class. Exams will include material covered in class that is not found in the textbook. If you must miss a class, you are responsible for getting notes and announcements from your classmates. To keep track of attendance, students will be asked to sign a sign-in sheet at the beginning of class. It is the student's responsibility to remember to sign in; if your name is not on the sign-in sheet, you will be counted absent. Students can miss up to three classes without grade penalty. For every absence after the third, the participation grade will drop one letter grade. Students who miss more than six classes may receive a failing grade in the course at my discretion. I may grant exceptions in cases of documented illness or emergency. Students are solely responsible for managing their enrollment status in a class; nonattendance does not constitute a withdrawal.

Electronic Devices Policy: I permit laptops and tablets in class, but for note taking and class-related activities only. I reserve the right to change this policy during the semester if necessary. No phones or recording devices are allowed. No electronics are permitted during examinations.

Course Assessments/Assignments:

- 10% Attendance / Participation
Factors include attendance, punctuality, amount and quality of active participation, collegiality, professionalism, and any in-class assignments
- 20% In-class quizzes (12 quizzes, every Tuesday except weeks 1, 5, and 10)
- 5% ID study guide contributions (3) – Sept 12, Oct 17, & Dec 5
- 10% Group Project – Annotated bibliography due October 31st; Debate on Dec 3
- 15% Exam 1 – Sept 17
- 20% Exam 2 – Oct 22
- 20% Final Exam – Dec 10

Changes to This Syllabus: The instructor reserves the right to make changes to this syllabus. Any substantive changes which impact grade calculations or grading will be announced in writing using D2L and will be emailed to the class. If you have concerns about announced changes, please contact the instructor and ask for clarification before the end of the semester.

Makeup Exams and Late Assignments: If a student is unable to be in class on the day of exam 1 or 2 and I have approved the absence in advance, he or she may make up the test during my office hours. Students may be permitted to take a makeup final exam only in cases of documented illness or emergency. I will only offer brief extensions on written assignments in cases of documented emergency / illness by prior arrangement (you must contact me before the assignment is due). Otherwise, I will not accept late work. If a student is absent on the day of a quiz, I will reduce the number of possible points accordingly (so the student will not get a 0 on the quiz, but each quiz question will be worth a bit more). After the 3 allowable absences, missed quizzes will count as zeros.

Grading Scale: Students are evaluated on the following scale:

A – 90–100%

B – 80–89%

C – 70–79%

D – 60–69%

F – less than 60%

I—Indicates an incomplete grade for the course, and will be awarded only when the student has done satisfactory work up to the last two weeks of the semester, but for nonacademic reasons beyond his/her control is unable to meet the full requirements of the course. Incomplete grades are only valid after submission of the Incomplete Grade form (signed by both the instructor and student) to the Department Chair’s office.

Academic Integrity Statement: Every KSU student is responsible for upholding the provisions of the Student Code of Conduct, as published in the Undergraduate and Graduate Catalogs. Section 5. C of the Student Code of Conduct addresses the university’s policy on academic honesty, including provisions regarding plagiarism and cheating, unauthorized access to university materials, misrepresentation/falsification of university records or academic work, malicious removal, retention, or destruction of library materials, malicious/intentional misuse of computer facilities and/or services, and misuse of student identification cards. Incidents of alleged academic misconduct will be handled through the established procedures of the Department of Student Conduct and Academic Integrity (SCAI), which includes either an “informal” resolution by a faculty member, resulting in a grade adjustment, or a formal hearing procedure, which may subject a student to the Code of Conduct’s minimum one semester suspension requirement. See the full KSU Codes of Conduct.

I take cheating very seriously. Academic dishonesty (cheating and plagiarism) may result in a failing grade for the assignment or the class. Academic dishonesty will be reported to the Department of Student Conduct and Academic Integrity (SCAI). ADA Compliance: Students with qualifying disabilities under the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and/or Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act who require “reasonable accommodation(s)” to complete the course may request those from Department of Student Success Services. Students requiring such accommodations are required to work with the University’s Department of Student Success Services rather than engaging in this discussion with individual faculty members or academic departments. If, after reviewing the course syllabus, a student anticipates or should have anticipated a need for accommodation, he or she must submit documentation requesting an accommodation and permitting time for a determination prior to submitting assignments or taking course quizzes or exams. Students may not request retroactive accommodation for needs that were or should have been foreseeable. Students should contact the office as soon as possible in the term for which they are seeking accommodations. For more information please visit their website, <http://sds.kennesaw.edu/>

Classroom Climate: This class is a part of your education—be invested in it! You are here to learn what history is, how it works, and why it is important—not just to get a letter on your transcript. This course can help you develop skills in critical thinking, analysis, and verbal and written communication that you will use for the rest of your life. I have designed the course with that goal in mind, but the best way for me to know how to help you learn is for you to tell me. So please do! Cultivate a sense of investment in your own learning by doing the reading (reading is fun!), taking pride in your work by putting forth your best effort on assignments, and being an active participant in discussions. This is an introductory class and a very friendly audience. Don't let nerves or lack of preparedness keep you from getting the most out of this class or from giving your colleagues the opportunity to benefit from your insights.

It is imperative that our classroom be a courteous, respectful, and safe environment for all students. Be aware of yourself, your surroundings, and the feelings of others to ensure that all students feel comfortable participating regardless of personal background, identity, and point of view. Discussions must be conducted positively and civilly.
