Attendance Policy: Students are expected to attend class and participate in class discussions. A small portion of the course grade (5%) will be based on attendance and participation.

Students are solely responsible for managing their enrollment status in a class; nonattendance does not constitute a withdrawal.

Electronic Devices Policy:

Laptops, tablets and phones are permitted in class. Students should not post on Facebook, tweet, watch cat videos on Youtube, etc. Pay attention.

Course Assessments/Assignments:

Three online essay exams (inclusive of the final (see calendar for tentative dates). Exams may be pushed back, but will not be moved forward. 20% each; 60% total

Module quizzes based on NGE entries, Empire State readings, and other readings from assigned modules. Students grade will be based on average OF 9 highest quiz grades (out of 14) and the average will count 20%.

Short written assignments (about 250-300 words each) based on primary sources, videos, and other materials. 15%. We will have 6 of these (2 before exam 1; 2 between exam 1 and exam 2; and 2 after exam 2).

Attendance/participation: 5%

Late Assignments: Quizzes must be completed by the date listed in each module. Late quizzes will not be accepted. Late exams and other short assignments may be accepted late in extraordinary circumstances—illness, weather, etc. If possible, seek prior approval from the instructor. In the absence of instructor approval for extenuating circumstances, late exams and other written assignments will incur a 5 point per day penalty.

Grading:

Grading Scale

Students are evaluated on the following scale:

A – 90+

B – 80-89

C – 70-79

D – 60-69

F – below 60

I—Indicates an incomplete grade for the course, and will be awarded only when the student has done satisfactory work up to the last two weeks of the semester, but for nonacademic reasons beyond his/her control is unable to meet the full requirements of the course. Incomplete grades are only valid after submission of the Incomplete Grade form (signed by both the instructor and student) to the Department Chair's office.

Academic Integrity Statement: Every KSU student is responsible for upholding the provisions of the Student Code of Conduct, as published in the Undergraduate and Graduate Catalogs. Section 5. C of the Student Code of Conduct addresses the university's policy on academic honesty, including provisions regarding plagiarism and cheating, unauthorized access to university materials, misrepresentation/falsification of university records or academic work, malicious removal, retention, or destruction of library materials, malicious/intentional misuse of computer facilities and/or services, and misuse of student identification cards. Incidents of alleged academic misconduct will be handled through the established procedures of the Department of Student Conduct and Academic Integrity (SCAI), which includes either an "informal" resolution by a faculty member, resulting in a grade adjustment, or a formal hearing procedure, which may subject a student to the Code of Conduct's minimum one semester suspension requirement. See the full KSU Codes of Conduct.
