Learning Objectives:

HIST 2111 satisfies one of Kennesaw State University’s general education program requirements. It addresses the U.S. PERSPECTIVES general education learning outcome(s). The learning outcome states: Students identify the historical, political, social, or institutional developments of the United States. For more information about KSU’s General Education program requirements and associated learning outcomes, please visit the course catalog.

Required Reading:

Title: Exploring American Histories, Vol. 1
Authors: Nancy Hewitt and Steven Lawson
Edition: 2nd
ISBN: 9781457694707

Attendance Policy:

Students are solely responsible for managing their enrollment status in a class; nonattendance does not constitute a withdrawal.

Each student is expected to attend ALL classes. Your success in this course (and in life) depends upon showing up and putting forth the effort to learn. If you come to class you are expected to remain for the entire class. If you must leave early please consult with the instructor in advance. I will be keeping a record of class attendance, so be sure to sign-in at the beginning of each class.

Note: in-class assignments cannot be made up. If you missed it, you missed it. Attendance will be factored into the final grade as follows: perfect attendance (+40 points); one class missed (+20 points).

Inclement Weather Policy:

Students will be expected to obtain the PowerPoint presentation for the missed class and study the material on their own. This will be available on D2L. Please consult your KSU email for the latest information.

Electronic Devices Policy:

- ⇒ Pagers, beepers, and cell-phones must be switched off or silenced during class.
- ⇒ The use of laptop or notebook computers is not permitted during class. PowerPoint presentations and video clips used during class will be on D2L. It will not be necessary to write everything down from the slides, they will be available BEFORE our scheduled class meeting.
- ⇒ It is the student's responsibility to know the material assigned, the class schedule, any assignments due, and exam dates.
- ⇒ Absolutely NO electronic devices are permitted during exams.

Course Assessments/Assignments:

Quizzes:

There will be 9 quizzes during the semester. Quizzes will help you learn how I ask questions in a low cost assessment. The top 5 quizzes (each worth 20 points) will constitute your quiz grade.

Online Discussion Board Assignments:

We will use our discussion board to discuss the primary documents and videos in their historical contexts. Please read the chapters in your textbook first, then the documents (or sometimes watch videos that are in the PowerPoints). The textbook material will give you the historical context for the documents and videos. The more you read and interact in our virtual classroom, the more you will get out of the class, the more interesting the class will be, and the easier the exams will be.

Your participation in online discussions will be graded based on your active involvement in these course discussions. This assignment is worth 30% of your course grade.

- Each student must log on to the discussion board each assigned week and participate in the online discussions that I will set up for you.
- My expectations are that you post a response to the initial question or topics I present on the discussion board AND that you then respond to each other's posts.
- Your posts and responses must be on time and must directly respond to the questions and topics for that week in order for you to receive full credit.
- For each week, I will indicate how many times you must post and how many responses to other posts you are responsible for. Of course, you may always go beyond that number.

Online Etiquette:

One of the virtues of an online class discussion is that no one is too shy to talk!!! I will ask you, though, to please be respectful and civil to each other and to use appropriate language (no cursing, degrading, or insulting individuals or the whole class or the teacher!!). The discussions should stay on topic and be historical in content. I will read and join in the discussions, when appropriate, so please discuss in a language and tone that you would use if you were in the classroom. If I feel that you have exceeded the boundaries of proper discussion board etiquette, I will delete your post and contact you individually by KSU email with an explanation. Any subsequent offenses will result in your being banned from the discussion board, which would negatively impact your grade.

Exams:

There will be three exams, each worth 200 points. All exams will be comprised of multiple choice and short answer/essay questions covering only the textbook chapters indicated on the course schedule. Study guides for each exam can be found on D2L.

All three exams will be non-cumulative. An essay make-up test will be issued in the event of an excused absence.

Makeup Exams and Late Assignments: All assignments should be completed on the dates indicated. If you know of an upcoming absence, email me the circumstances and provide the necessary documentation. Relating to writing assignments, there is a five-point penalty per day past the due date.

If you have a documented absence from an exam—accepted by me—then you may take a makeup exam. This is scheduled for Friday, December 6th from 1-4pm in SO 2025. All makeup exams are completely essay in nature.

Academic Integrity Statement Every KSU student is responsible for upholding the provisions of the Student Code of Conduct, as published in the Undergraduate and Graduate Catalogs. Section 5. C of the Student Code of Conduct addresses the university's policy on academic honesty, including provisions regarding plagiarism and cheating, unauthorized access to university materials, misrepresentation/falsification of university records or academic work, malicious removal, retention, or destruction of library materials, malicious/intentional misuse of computer facilities and/or services, and misuse of student identification cards. Incidents of alleged academic misconduct will be handled through the established procedures of the Department of Student Conduct and Academic Integrity (SCAI), which includes either an "informal" resolution by a faculty member, resulting in a grade adjustment, or a formal hearing procedure, which may subject a student to the Code of Conduct's minimum one semester suspension requirement. See the full KSU Codes of Conduct.

I expect each student to do their own work, unaided by either fellow students or electronic resources. It is important for everyone to sign-in to document your attendance in class. The signature must be your own—signing for another student is a violation of the Code of Conduct.

Violations of the code may include lowering of grades and further disciplinary action based on the severity of the infraction.

ADA Compliance:

Students with qualifying disabilities under the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and/or Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act who require “reasonable accommodation(s)” to complete the course may request those from Department of Student Success Services. Students requiring such accommodations are required to work with the University’s Department of Student Success Services rather than engaging in this discussion with individual faculty members or academic departments. If, after reviewing the course syllabus, a student anticipates or should have anticipated a need for accommodation, he or she must submit documentation requesting an accommodation and permitting time for a determination prior to submitting assignments or taking course quizzes or exams. Students may not request retroactive accommodation for needs that were or should have been foreseeable. Students should contact the office as soon as possible in the term for which they are seeking accommodations. For more information please visit their website, <http://sds.kennesaw.edu/>
